Draw in Nakatosh!

Enjoy a journey in Natchitoches drawing and painting the beautiful landscapes and nature of this city. This is a beginning course in drawing and painting techniques. In this course students will be introduced to basic techniques like graphite, color pencil and watercolor. You will also learn about the color wheel and elements of perspective that can be helpful for your artwork.

There will also be space for students with intermediate and advanced levels to take the class. We will be working in the areas of Front Street and also have some meetings in our studio at the university.
